TEMPLE TERRACE SHOOTING VICTIM IDENTIFIED

TEMPLE TERRACE, FL. – (2/27/14) – A Temple Terrace resident who was shot during an altercation outside his apartment on Wednesday has been identified as Ronald McClendon II, 38, of 105 Sunnyside Road.

The motive for the shooting remains under investigation. Police were interviewing McClendon on Thursday at Tampa General Hospital, where he remains in stable condition.

McClendon was shot around 3:45 p.m. on Wednesday in the parking lot separating the Sweetbay shopping center on 56th Street and Doral Oaks, a sprawling apartment complex where McClendon lives.

McClendon was shot once in the mid-section during an altercation with three to four men, who fled the scene in a green Kia Sephia, police said.

The vehicle was found abandoned late Wednesday afternoon by Tampa police officers in the vicinity of Temple Heights Road and 50th Street, Tampa. It has been impounded.

Details on the suspects remain sketchy, but witnesses said three to four black males left the scene in the Kia. The Tampa Police Department is assisting in the investigation.

Anyone who may have information about this incident should contact the Temple Terrace Police Department at (813) 989-7110.
