CITY CELEBRATES ‘USF DAY’ IN TEMPLE TERRACE

TEMPLE TERRACE, FL. – (03/21/14) – Join us as we salute the University of South Florida during the inaugural “USF Day” in Temple Terrace on April 1, 2014.

The event is the City’s way of recognizing and celebrating the longtime partnership and friendship between the University of South Florida and Temple Terrace. The City often has been called USF’s unofficial “hometown” because so many students, professors and university staff make this community their home.

Temple Terrace will be flying the USF Flag in front of City Hall all day on April 1. That evening, Mayor Frank Chillura will present a proclamation to USF President Judy Genshaft declaring USF Day in Temple Terrace. The proclamation will be presented during the regular Temple Terrace City Council meeting, beginning at 6 p.m.

Rocky the Bull, the USF Sun Dolls, cheerleaders and university dignitaries will be on hand. USF alumni are invited to come out and show their support for this important partnership.

USF is a high-impact, global research university located just five minutes from Temple Terrace, putting it within easy walking, bicycling and commuting distance. The university and the City have long partnered on issues of common interest and importance, such as economic development, transportation, architecture and the arts.

We’re proud to host USF Day in Temple Terrace. Go Bulls!
