FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DECEASED GIRL IDENTIFIED AS MISSING 9-YEAR-OLD

TEMPLE TERRACE, FL. – (5/18/14) – A young female found floating in the bay off Courtney Campbell Causeway on Saturday has been identified as Felecia Nicole Williams, the 9-year-old girl who vanished from a Temple Terrace apartment complex Friday evening.

The Pinellas County Medical Examiner's Office released the results of an autopsy Sunday confirming the identity of Williams, who lived in Tampa and attended Edison Elementary School. Williams' body was discovered by boaters around 3:20 p.m. Saturday floating in the waters adjacent to the causeway in Clearwater.

The Temple Terrace Police Department is classifying the case as a homicide. The department is not releasing information about possible suspects or persons of interest at this time in an effort not to jeopardize the investigation, police said.

Police detectives are investigating several leads. Late Saturday night police arrested Eboni Alicia Wiley, 23, of Tampa on a third-degree felony charge of providing false information to a law enforcement officer during a missing person investigation. She bonded out of jail early Sunday morning.

Williams was visiting Wiley, a family acquaintance, at the Doral Oaks apartment complex in Temple Terrace on Friday, May 16 when she disappeared between 5:30 p.m. and 6 p.m.

The case remains under investigation. Anyone with information about this incident should contact the Temple Terrace Police Department at (813) 989-7110.
