FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STRONG ARMED ROBBERY

TEMPLE TERRACE, FL. – (5/27/2014) – Police are investigating a strong armed robbery which occurred at about 2:00 p.m. Tuesday afternoon at the R&H Pharmacy located at 8890 North 56th Street in Temple Terrace.

According to police, the victims, Jason Kavanaugh, 40 of Sarasota, and Adam Brownfield, 24 of Bradenton, were exiting the pharmacy when they were approached by two male suspects personally known to them. The suspects, identified as Chad Marlett, 38 of Port Charlotte, and Daniel L. Zook, 31 of Sarasota, demanded that Kavanaugh handover his medication. The suspects then struck the victims with their fists, knocking Kavanaugh to the ground.

While on the ground the suspects took $120.00 out of Kavanaugh's pocket and sprayed pepper spray in Kavanaugh's face and eyes. The suspects then fled the area in a white SUV.

Criminal charges have been referred to the State Attorney's Office and are currently pending against both suspects.
