‘NATIONAL NIGHT OUT’ FOCUSES ON CRIME PREVENTION

TEMPLE TERRACE, FL. – (9/18/12) – Residents throughout the community will come together against crime at Temple Terrace’s annual National Night Out on Tuesday, Oct. 2, 2012.

Temple Terrace’s award-winning program will start at 6 p.m. at the Family Recreation Complex, 6610 Whiteway Drive.

National Night Out is designed to strengthen police-community partnerships in the fight against neighborhood crime. More than 15,000 communities participated last year, according to the non-profit National Association of Town Watch. The event usually is held in August, but Temple Terrace holds its program in October to escape the summer storms.

Temple Terrace’s National Night Out program has been recognized as one of Florida’s best. This year’s event will feature games, displays, emergency vehicles, K-9 and SWAT team demonstrations, and many more fun activities. There will be free ice cream, pizza and cotton candy, too!

Target will be this year’s title sponsor, offering lots of giveaways, including school supplies. Drawings will be held for great prizes, including bicycles and backpacks. The event will conclude with a flashlight walk around the neighborhood to show that Temple Terrace residents are united against crime.

National Night Out is a free event, and everyone is welcome to attend. It’s educational and fun!

For more information, contact Sgt. Steven Sutter of the Temple Terrace Police Department at (813) 506-6500.
