TOP HONORS AWARDED TO CITY MEDICAL DIRECTOR

[Temple Terrace, Florida] – Dr. Boone Shepard, EMS Medical Director for the City of Temple Terrace, was recently awarded State EMS Medical Director of the Year. The award was presented in Orlando by the Florida Department of Health for outstanding achievements in the field of emergency medical services.

Dr. Shepard first began working with the city back in 2010 when she began providing medical direction to the City's paramedics. Under her direction, the Temple Terrace Fire Department has become one of the most progressive EMS providers in the state. "Dr. Shepard provides Fire Department personnel the guidance and support necessary to offer patients the best care possible," said Ian Kemp, Fire Chief for Temple Terrace.

In addition to her role as Temple Terrace Medical Director, Dr. Shepard also serves as the medical director for the Emergency Department at South Florida Baptist Hospital and is an emergency physician at Tampa General Hospital.
