CITY WELCOMES NEW ENGINEER

Vincenzo “Vinny” Corazza joined city staff earlier this month as our new City Engineer. Vinny’s professional career began in 1995 working with the City of Los Angeles, California. His engineering experience spans various assignments in both private and public sectors. More recently, Vinny worked for the Florida Department of Transportation and now looks forward to providing his technical expertise here in Temple Terrace.

THE EMPLOYEES FOR EMPLOYEES COMMITTEE WANTS YOU!

The committee is looking for helping hands to create this year’s Independence Day Parade float. If you are available and would like to participate, the committee will meet Saturday, June 30 at 9:30 am behind the Public Works building. Participants are asked to bring scissors, tape, zip-ties, markers, decorations and plenty of patriotism! Please RSVP by email to Nichole Sauer at nsauer@templeterrace.com

LIBRARIES ROCK!

Have you signed up for the Library’s Summer Reading program yet? There are various versions for all ages. Library programs include special events and a chance to win prizes too! Coming up on Wednesday, June 27 from 6 to 7 pm, the Temple Terrace Public Library will feature the Crabgrass Cowboys performing country, rockabilly and bluegrass in the tradition of singing cowboys.

NEW RESIDENTS COMING TO TEMPLE TERRACE!

Habitat for Humanity of Hillsborough County will present Tangerla Burton and her four sons, Mark, Jermaine, Jaiden and Jayceon with the keys to their new Temple Terrace home Saturday morning, June 23 at 10 am. A project of Women Build, more than 150 women volunteers have been working on the 1,500 square-foot, three-bedroom, two-bath house located at 513 Broxburn Avenue since early April.

All are invited and encouraged to attend. Please help us welcome the family to our Amazing City!

(Mayor Mel Jurado met the family at a Habitat reception held in April for the members of Women Build.)

TEMPLE TERRACE WELCOMES THE BURTON FAMILY.
