LIBRARY OFFERS AMAZING RESOURCES FREE OF CHARGE

The Temple Terrace Public Library, in partnership with the Hillsborough County Public Library Cooperative, offers several online resources to expand your knowledge and broaden your skillset. Are you familiar with Lynda.com, an online learning platform for business, software, technology and creative skills? Maybe you've been thinking about learning a new language, in this case Mango.com is the perfect solution. Individuals and companies pay big bucks to access similar training resources. These online classes help you learn popular software applications, programming platforms, business etiquette, language and communication skills, and much more! All you need is a public library card. And don't forget, your library card also serves as your golden ticket to check out books, music, movies and other terrific media options. Be sure to visit the "Learning & Research" links at www.templeterrace.com/library and www.hcplc.org to learn more!

BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB CLOSER THAN EVER TO BECOMING REALITY

The Sam and Laurice Hachem Boys and Girls Club of Temple Terrace gains incredible support. A Tampa resident and bay area philanthropist, who wishes to remain unnamed at this time, has recently committed $125K to develop the club's "Learning and Innovation Center." Additionally, Tampa Bay Area Credit Unions for Kids, a charity organization funded by local area credit unions, has committed $100K to help ensure the club's success. These sizable donations, in addition to the $500K previously committed by Laurice Hachem, combined with other fundraising efforts and the cooperative support of both city and county officials, now ensure the club's reality. Plans are well underway to convert the former Hillsborough County Parks and Recreation facility on Temple Terrace Highway into the club's new home.

THANK YOU TO EVERYONE WHO MADE IT POSSIBLE

In the aftermath of this year's Independence Day celebration, the talk of the town is surrounding the cancellation of the fireworks. The decision to cancel the fireworks was mutually agreed to by both the pyrotechnic company and city officials. It was based upon lighting in the area at the time of set-up. Although most of the rain had passed, lighting was still dangerously close. Lightning can strike from miles away and cause tremendous tragedy. Although weather conditions dampened evening activities, the day-time parade was a huge success! Hundreds of staffers and volunteers worked tirelessly before, during and after the city festivities to make it all possible. Even during the rain and after the fireworks were cancelled, city staffers were out there doing their jobs and taking care of our community. Thank you, to each and every one of you, for everything you do to make the City of Temple Terrace absolutely amazing!
