Dear Temple Terrace residents and visitors to our Amazing City:

Frank Chillura, Mayor
City of Temple Terrace

Autumn has arrived ... can't you tell?

It's still pretty muggy outside, but I think you'll be smiling a couple of months from now when our friends up north are digging their Toyota Camrys out of the snow. In the meantime, we are looking forward to a lot of great activities coming up in the sunny City of Temple Terrace.

Perhaps you've heard: The Bellamy Brothers will headline the second annual Farm Night BBQ, slated for Feb 24, 2017. The inaugural event last February raised more than $10,000 for Temple Terrace youth recreation programs, and we are very grateful for all the hosts, sponsors and volunteers who worked to make it a success. You can read all about Farm Night BBQ 2017 in this issue of Playbook.

The City has received a proposal for some of the property in our downtown redevelopment area, and we have received inquiries from a number of other interested companies. Other projects underway in our community include a BayCare Health service facility, a 122-room Woodspring Suites hotel, and a new Tampa Oaks senior living facility.

Of course, you're never far from fun in Temple Terrace, and we have a lot of events to add to your calendar. I can't list them all here, but don't forget to pencil in these dates:

Fall Fest (Oct. 29), Arts Fest (Nov. 12-13), Winter Wonderland (Dec. 3), Arbor Day (Jan. 21), Touch a Truck (Jan. 28), Family Valentines Dance (Feb. 11), Art en Blanc (April 8), and BrewFest (May 13).

See you there!

Sincerely,

Frank Chillura

BELLAMY
to headline

Hickory-smoked ribs, sizzlin' music and cold beer helped make the first Farm Night BBQ a huge success last February. Now, the pit crew is turning up the heat for 2017!

The Bellamy Brothers, one of Florida's most successful hit-makers, will headline the second annual Farm Night BBQ on Feb. 24, 2017. The event is 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. at the M&B Products dairy farm, 8601 Harney Road. Gates open at 5:30 p.m.

The inaugural Farm Night BBQ raised more than $10,000 for Temple Terrace youth recreation programs, and having the Bellamy Brothers on the bill is sure to spark even more interest in the event, said Dale McClellan, president of M&B Products, Inc.

"This is exciting," he said. "We've got a big-time band, some of the best barbecue in Florida, and a generous helping of Temple Terrace hospitality – all at an amazing price. This will be a night to remember."

The Bellamy Brothers are on a world tour to promote the band's 40th anniversary. They have racked up a slew of hits over the years, including the No. 1 smash "Let Your Love Flow," which topped the Billboard Hot 100 in 1976. The Dan Story Band also is slated to perform.

Farm Night BBQ 2017 promises an exciting evening of family fun. Kids will get a taste of farm life, with a chance to see a butter-making exhibit, cracker whip/roping demonstrations and more. They'll explore a variety of hands-on experiences sponsored by Hillsborough County Ag-Venture. There will be hayrides, a bonfire and other activities. Representatives from Temple Terrace's Farm2School program at Greco Middle School also will be on hand, teaching kids about the importance of agriculture.

Of course, it wouldn't be Farm Night BBQ without great food. The lineup includes slow-smoked barbecued ribs, chicken, pulled pork and hamburgers, along with corn on the cob, baked beans, coleslaw, farm-fresh ice cream, strawberry shortcake and more. Beer and wine will be sold separately at reasonable prices. IDs will be checked.

A big "Thank You" goes out to M&B Products and Temple Terrace Masonic Lodge #330 F&AM for putting on this event. We would also like to thank all the other sponsors and volunteers who contributed, as well as the City of Temple Terrace, the Greater Temple Terrace Chamber of Commerce, Premier Signs and Hillsborough County Ag-Venture.

Advance tickets for Farm Night BBQ 2017 are $25 for adults, $10 for school-age children and free for preschoolers. Prices at the gate are $5 more per ticket. Admission includes all your food, beverages (excluding alcohol) and entertainment. Parking is free.

Tickets may be purchased by visiting www.FarmNightBBQ.com. Proceeds from the event will benefit Temple Terrace youth recreation programs. ★
